

More research to document the history of this location is needed and you can help!

Mapping LGBTQ St. Louis launched in October 2017 with over 800 points related to lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and queer history. More in-depth stories remain to be documented about many of the locations.

Do you know more about this location?

Help grow the map! Send your comments, questions, and feedback to the project team using this online form:

<https://goo.gl/forms/CeJtYKoo1Ma410643>

Mapping LGBTQ St. Louis is an interdisciplinary humanities project examining the intersections of gender, sexuality, race, class & society in the metropolitan area of St. Louis, Missouri.

<http://library.wustl.edu/map-lgbtq-stl>