

www.library.wustl.edu/map-lgbtq-stl

Mapping LGBTQ St. Louis

Additional Information Sheet

Location:

Moonstorm (published by Tiamet Press)

554 Limit

7213 Lanham

6344 S. Rosebury

Additional Information:

Issues of Moonstorm are available at The State Historical Society of Missouri, in the Lesbian Alliance of St. Louis MO (S0129) Collection.

Select issues have been reproduced and are available online:

Moonstorm, early 1970s (undated): <http://omeka.wustl.edu/omeka/files/show/57570> focused on the topic of bars. Includes an interview with Phillis Kitchen (pp. 5-9), "Dykes Find a New Home" about Lesbian Alliance (pp. 9-10), and reflections on several bars, including Little Caesars.

Moonstorm, Nov-Dec 1974: <http://omeka.wustl.edu/omeka/files/show/57574> covers a variety of topics, and includes an extensive essay titled "Bar Hopping with Patt" (pp. 32-35) exploring the Side Door (second floor of Substation 8 on Market Street); Martin's (south of Union Station in the Stadium Hotel); the Gate (coffeehouse on Olive east of Grand); Midway; Helen Schraeder's (on the East side); and P.K.'s.

Moonstorm, Spring 1977: <http://omeka.wustl.edu/omeka/files/show/57572>

focused on the politics of food, agriculture, waitressing, colonialism in food trade globally, nutrition for children, and healthcare. Last article includes a statement about Moonstorm, titled "Who We Are."

Moonstorm, Spring 1980: <http://omeka.wustl.edu/omeka/files/show/57571>

an in-depth look at the 1980 Celebration (pride) event planning and the role of lesbians and gay men working together

For additional history see:

