RE: [REDACTED] et al
EXTORTION

Coverage was given by Bureau agents and Chicago Police officers, and the subject was apprehended immediately after he received the package from the victim.

Upon interview the subject claimed he was sent to the payoff spot by a man named [REDACTED] to pick up a package and was to be paid $5 by [REDACTED] when he met [REDACTED] after the pickup. b6
b7c

Coverage was given this alleged meeting, and no one with the description of [REDACTED] was observed in the area of alleged meeting place. b6
b7c

Subject's statements during the interview were extremely vague, contradictory, and he was reluctant to furnish any details of his activities that could be corroborated.

The handwriting specimens which are enclosed herewith were given voluntarily by the subject, but he was extremely slow in printing, appeared to be very cautious and continually attempted to compare printing which he had previously furnished. It will be noted that there is one page of handwriting specimens submitted on onion skin. This was an attempt to attain left hand-printing. Subject stated he could not print lefthanded and refused to try after printing a very few letters.

It is requested that enclosures 1-4 be examined for latent fingerprints and if any latent prints are developed, they should be compared to the subject's prints on file in the Identification Division (FBI No. 109209B).

It is also requested that enclosures 1-4 be searched through the Anonymous Letter File.

Further it is requested that enclosures 1-4 be compared to enclosures 5 and 6 to determine whether subject is the writer of the extortion letters.

TRANSIENT HELD IN EXTORT PLOT
ON PUBLISHER

Richard Bowles, 31 of 12 S. Peoria St., Chicago, faced federal charges of mailing two extortion letters yesterday after his arrest Thursday night in an alleged attempt to extort $15,000 from John H. Johnson, wealthy publisher of Negro magazine.

Bowles was seized by federal bureau of investigation agents as he approached an auto in which Johnson was waiting at 209 W. Garfield bld. and reached for a package the publisher was holding. Johnson had been warned to have the money ready by a letter and a card which threatened him with death and demanded the money as the "fee" for membership in an unnamed organization.

United States Commissioner C. S. Bentley Pike ordered Bowles held in $3,000 bond for a hearing Thursday on the charges. If convicted, he would face a maximum of 40 years in prison and $10,000 in fines.

Publisher Foils Extortion Plot

A plot to extort $15,000 from John H. Johnson, wealthy magazine publisher, was nipped today by FBI agents and Scotland Yard police.

Seized as he walked into a trap and accepted "payment" from the intended victim was Richard Bowles, 29, of 12 S. Peoria st., one-time Army deserter.

Bowles, who used his last 20 cents for bus fare from the Loop to the "payoff spot" at 209 E. 55th st., was named in a federal extortion charge.

EBONY PUBLISHER

Johnson publishes Ebony, Jet and other magazines. He lives at 845 Drexel sq., but the extortion letters were sent to his office at 1820 S. Michigan av.

The first missive, received Dec. 14, was signed "The Committee." It instructed Johnson to get ready $15,000 in $20 and smaller bills as his "fee" for joining an unnamed organization. The letter continued:

"The companies who refuse to joint don't stay in business long. I am sure you have read about places being bombed or cars blowing up. More instructions later."

CHRISTMAS CARD

A Christmas card, post-marked Dec. 20, directed Johnson to deliver the money on Garfield blvd., between Indiana and Prairie avs.

Under instructions of FBI agents and Chicago police, the publisher prepared a dummy package and drove to the designated vicinity.

Bowles stepped up as soon as the car was parked and accepted the package. Officers closed in and made the arrest.

Born in Chicago, Bowles deserted from the Army at Fort Custer in 1951 and gave up two years later. He was on unemployment compensation until October and has since worked as a dishwasher.

Nabbed In $15,000 Extort Plot

An ex-dishwasher was in custody Friday, charged with trying to extort $15,000 from John H. Johnson, publisher of Ebony and other magazines.

Police and FBI men said they trapped Richard Bowles, 29, after he accepted a dummy package from Johnson Thursday night.

JOHNSON had received two threatening letters and the package was supposed to be the payoff, according to Donald Hostetter, FBI chief here.

Bowles was seized near 308 E. Garfield blvd, while Johnson sat nearby in a parked auto, according to authorities.

Bowles, of 12 S. Peoria, has an alias of "Skid Row," Hostetter said.

JOHNSON received the first threatening letter Dec. 14, according to the FBI. The letter instructed Johnson to get $15,000 in $20 bills and smaller ones—his fee for joining an unnamed organization.

HOSTETTER quoted the letter as saying:

"The companies who refuse to join don't stay in business long. I am sure you have read about places being bombed or cars blowing up." The letter was signed, "The Committee," and said Johnson would get further instructions, the FBI said.

LATER HE received a Christmas card, mailed here Dec. 20, Hostetter said.

The card instructed him to be on Garfield blvd. between Indiana and Prairie at 7 p.m. Thursday, and contained this threat:

"If anything goes wrong, someone can get ready to bury you or someone close to you, and if you refuse the next in line for the business will pay."

JOHNSON notified authorities after receiving the first letter. The arrest was made by a Scotland Yard police detail headed by Lt. Joseph Morris.

Hostetter said Bowles was unarmed when seized.

In Bowles' pocket was a copy of Jet magazine, listing Johnson as publisher and his business address of 1820 S. Michigan, Hostetter said.

Bowles spent his last 20 cents to get from the Loop to the payoff spot, according to agents.

They declined to say whether he admitted or denied the plot.

FBI records showed that Bowles served in the Army in World War II, re-enlisted and went AWOL for two years before turning himself in in March, 1953.

U.S. Commissioner C. S. Bentley Pike continued a hearing on the extortion charge to next Thursday and set bond at $3,000.

A police trap baited with a dummy package has sprung on a man accused of trying to extort $15,000 from John H. Johnson, magazine publisher.

Bowles admitted sending two notes to Johnson, publisher of Ebony and Jet magazines, demanding $15,000 under threat of death, Don S. Hostetter, agent in charge of the FBI office here, said Friday.

Extortion Try Brings Five Years

Richard Bowles, 30, a transient, pleaded guilty Thursday to trying to extort $15,000 from John H. Johnson, publisher of Jet and Ebony magazines.

Federal Judge John P. Barnes sentenced him to five years in prison.

THE JUDGE recommended that Bowles, of 12 S. Peoria, be examined by prison authorities to see whether he needs treatment for alcoholism.

Bowles' attorney, Alvin A. Turner, had urged that he be sent to a federal center for treatment of alcoholics, rather than to prison.

Police and FBI men nabbed Bowles in a trap Dec. 22 near 209 E. Garfield Blvd. after Johnson had received threatening letters.

Bowles was free for a few hours Jan. 10 after U.S. Commissioner C. S. Bentley Pike turned him loose for "want of prosecution."

But he was indicted on the charge the same day and seized again.

DETAILS: AT CHICAGO, ILLINOIS

Predication

This investigation is predicated upon a telephone call on December 22, 1955, from Police Commissioner, Chicago Police Department, TIMOTHY J. O'CONNOR who advised that JOHN H. JOHNSON, 1820 South Michigan, Chicago, Illinois, was in receipt of two extortion letters sent through the U.S. Mails and at that time was in his office available for interview.

Interview of Victim and Jurisdiction

On December 22, 1955, about 12 noon, SA [redacted] and SA ROSS T. SPENCER interviewed JOHN H. JOHNSON in Police Commissioner O'CONNOR's office. JOHNSON advised that he is the owner and publisher of the Johnson Publishing Company, 1820 South Michigan, Chicago, Illinois, and publishes such periodicals as "Jet", "Hue", "Tan", and "Ebony".

JOHNSON was in possession of two letters he had received through the U.S. Mails. The envelope of the first letter was addressed in person to Mr. John H. Johnson, 1820 South Michigan, Chicago, Illinois, and contained the return address of "700 Indiana, Chi, Ill." In the lower left hand corner of the envelope was marked the word "Personal" and contained the postmark of "Chicago 34, Ill. December 14, 1955". The contents of the first letter was in pencil printing and is set forth below:

b6
b7c

CG 9-2319

"Dec. 15, 1955

"Mr Johnson: -

"We have let you operate for ten years. We think it is time for you to join our organization. We have 350 members. The companies who refuse to join don't stay in bussiness long. I'm sure you have read about places being bombed or cars blowing up. We don't want to hurt anyone but we hate to be refused by customers. Our fee is $15,000 for five year memership. Mr. Johnson need we tell you that we have you under 24 hour watch. So please don't for you benefit and all concerned see any police officers. Now you think this over. You have a nice bussiness. We will get in touch with you. We collect in no larger bills than $20.00. We'll be seeing you. Better have your fee ready Friday Dec. 17, 1955.

"The Committe_ "

The envelope of the second letter was addressed in pencil printing to "Mr. John H. Johnson, 1820 So. Michigan Ave., Chicago, Ill." In the upper left corner was the return address "700 So. Wabash, Chi, Ill." In the lower left corner was the word "Personal". The envelope bore the postmark "Chicago 34, Ill., December 20, 1955, 12 M". The letter was written on a Christmas card. The card was folded in quarters and under the verse printed on the card was the penciled words "Message on inside". By unfolding the card, the following handprinted note appeared:

"Dec. 20, 1955

"This is our second reply. We wanted to give you time to think. Well you have had time. We will be looking for you to make delivery Dec. 22 1955 at 7:00 P.M. You are to leave your bussiness at 6:30 P.M. proceed South on Wabash to Garfield Blvd. East on Garfield to Indiana Park on Garfield between Indiana and Prairie heading East. Two of us will follow you from your bussiness to Garfield to see if you are alone. If you have gotten in touch with anyone we will know it. If you have it is a waste of time for you to show up. You have already signed someones death, either you or close to you. The last one of us will get some who needs a drink of wine or a couple dollars to come to your car to get the package. Then you leave because we will have everything control. But if anything go wrong. Someone can get ready to bury you or someone close to you. Very few people refuse because we do our work well. You think, because this is a small to be happy and alive. We have been in to bussiness for 15 years. If you refuse the next in line for the business will pay.

"The Committee

"P.S. The fellow who come to your car will be colored. He will say told him to pick up a package from Mr. Johnson"

CG 9-2319

b6
b7c

JOHNSON stated that his secretary usually receives his mail at his office and then turns it over to him to read. He stated that he had told four persons about receiving these letters, namely, his secretary, [REDACTED], U.S. Congressman DAWSON of Chicago, his attorney, J. NORMAN GODDESS, and his wife EUNICE. JOHNSON stated that the letters had been handled by these persons and abused principally because he did not take the threat in them seriously and considered them as a practical joke; however, upon the advice of his attorney, he went to the Chicago Police Department to report the incidents.

JOHNSON related that he resides at 845 Drexel Square, Chicago, Illinois, on the first floor. He is married and lives with his wife, EUNICE. They have no children. He stated that at the present time his wife's mother is visiting them.

JOHNSON's daily routine is usually as follows:

Each morning he calls the garage and has an attendant bring his car to his home. He drives the car to work each morning sometime between 8:30 a.m. and 9:30 a.m. He parks his car in an alleyway beside his business at 820 South Michigan and uses the side door of that building for exit and entry. His business day is usually spent on the premises at 820 South Michigan and he normally leaves his business about 6:30 p.m. each day. At this hour, namely 6:30 p.m., JOHNSON stated most of his employees have left and the only person who is on the premises regularly at that time is his stepfather, JAMES WILLIAMS, age 70, who is in charge of cleaning up the building. His stepfather and mother, Mrs. GERTRUDE WILLIAMS, reside at 6018 St. Lawrence, Chicago, Illinois. He related that his stepfather stays in the building from approximately 5:00 p.m. until 11:00 p.m. On some days, JOHNSON related, when his stepfather is not working, he usually stays until 11:00 p.m. in the building until a night watchman takes over. However, when he usually leaves at 6:30 p.m., JOHNSON stated that he drives to his home and usually makes one stop where he picks up the evening papers. After having dinner, he usually goes out to a newsstand and get the late editions of the evening papers to read. After that, he calls the garage and has his car taken to the garage.

JOHNSON owns a 1956 black Cadillac, four door sedan, 1955 Illinois license Number 911267. There is no license plate on the front of the car. He stated that his car is equipped with a telephone, Chicago telephone number JR 6-2834. JOHNSON states that he stores this car in Bob's Garage, 5631 South State Street, Chicago, Illinois.

As to his business, JOHNSON stated that he employs approximately 106 persons in the Johnson Publishing Company and knows of no present employee or former employee who might forward to him such extortion letters. He could recall no incidents from a business standpoint that might induce some person to extort him.

JOHNSON believed that the extortioner's attention was attracted to him by a feature article appearing in the Roto Section of the "Chicago Daily News" on December 17, 1955. This article along with colored pictures was entitled, "Chicago Success Story". The article set forth in limited biographical fashion how JOHNSON had risen from an insurance man to a financial success in the publishing field.

It should be noted that the first extortion letter was dated December 15, 1955, two days prior to the appearance of the article. According to JOHNSON, the above article was advertised in the "Daily News" and over radio stations a week prior to its publication in the Saturday Edition of the "Daily News". It was JOHNSON's opinion that the publicity he received from this article attracted the extortioner's attention.

The only other personal incident in his life, according to JOHNSON, which might have caused a person to extort him, concerned an attendant at Bob's Garage. He recalled that during the past year his wife had called an attendant at the garage to take the car from his home to the garage. It is believed that the attendant found some personal checks belonging to EUNICE JOHNSON in the car and took them and attempted to cash them through a third party at a currency exchange. JOHNSON stated he placed a stop on these checks and subsequently recovered them. He stated that no action was taken against the attendant and it is not known for sure whether the attendant knew that JOHNSON suspected him. JOHNSON identified this attendant as JOHNNY TAYLOR, 45 years of age, Negro, 5'5" tall, 150 pounds, presently employed at the Maggdoek Company, 43rd and State Streets, Chicago, Illinois.

The following description of the victim, JOHNSON, was obtained by observation and interrogation:

Preparation and Plans to Cover Payoff

b6
b7C
b7D

At the completion of the above interview, JOHNSON agreed that he would cooperate with the FBI and do anything to facilitate the apprehension of the extortioner.

Police Commissioner O'CONNOR appointed Lt. [redacted] and the men of his detail to work with the FBI in covering the instant payoff. It was agreed that a meeting between the victim, SAs [redacted] and SPENCER and Lt. [redacted] would be held at [redacted] at 2:00 p.m. on December 22, 1955, to formulate a plan for covering the payoff.

Prior to the 2:00 p.m. meeting, SA GEORGE F. GILLEM prepared the payoff package and together with SA [redacted] surveilled the area where the payoff was to take place. It was ascertained that this area is a business district consisting of one and two story buildings.

9-29-55-16

CG 9-2319

The traffic on Garfield Boulevard is heavy and it is double laned with a midway in-between lane. The South portion of the Boulevard is used for East Bound traffic and the North portion for West Bound traffic.

It was ascertained that the buildings at 209 and 205 East Garfield were empty and located in the block designated in the two extortion letters by the extortioner as the place of payoff. It was ascertained by SAs GILLEM and [] that these buildings could be made available to the FBI in covering instant payoff. b6 b7c

At 2:00 p.m. on December 22, 1955, SAs [] and SPENCER met with Lt. [] and the victim at the []. The following plan b6 for covering the payoff was formulated to jibe with the b7c instructions in the two extortion letters. b7D

The victim was to leave his place of business as usual at 6:30 p.m., drive South on Michigan Avenue to 20th Street, turn West on 20th Street to Wabash Avenue, and then turn South on Wabash to Garfield Boulevard. At Garfield Boulevard, the victim was to turn East and park on the South side in the prescribed block, turn out his lights and sit in his car. It was believed that the victim should arrive at the payoff scene at approximately 6:50 p.m., and it was agreed that he should sit there until approximately 8:00 p.m. sharp and if nothing happened, drive to his home. If and when the extortioner appeared at the car, JOHNSON was to give the extortion package to him and immediately turn on his headlights as if pulling away in his car.

JOHNSON was furnished the payoff package and was equipped with portable radio equipment to be worn by him on his person. He was given instructions on how to use the equipment and instructed to announce his leaving at 6:30 p.m., his location as he proceeded to the payoff scene and to report any suspicious cars or persons that he might observe on his way.

To preclude any possibility that JOHNSON might be intercepted by the extortioner on his way to the payoff scene, SA [redacted] and Officers [redacted] and [redacted] occupied a Yellow Cab equipped with portable radio equipment which placed them in communication with the victim and other agents and officers at the payoff scene.

Also occupying another Yellow Cab with similar radio equipment was SA ROBERT J. DENEEN and Officers [redacted] and [redacted]. These cabs were assigned to accompany in close proximity the victim on his trip from his office to the payoff scene. In addition, SA FRANCIS W. MATTHYS and Officer [redacted] occupied a car assigned to accompany the victim from his office to the payoff scene by driving a parallel street one block to the East of the route. SA [redacted] and Officer [redacted] were assigned to accompany the victim on his route to the payoff scene by travelling a parallel route one block West. Upon arrival at the payoff scene, the victim was to park between the addresses 205 and 209 East Garfield Boulevard. SA [redacted] was assigned to obtain a parking place and save this parking place to insure that the victim was in the most advantageous position. As the victim approached the payoff scene, he was to announce over the radio his location and SA [redacted] would pull out in front of the victim to insure his obtaining a parking place.

On arrival at the payoff scene both Yellow Cabs and the two accompanying cars accompanied by a third car occupied by SA [redacted] and Officer [redacted], a fourth car occupied by SA WILLIAM J. WATRY and Officer [redacted] and a fifth car occupied by SA RAYMOND J. DRISCOLL and Officer [redacted] and a police truck occupied by SA [redacted] and Officers [redacted] and [redacted] were assigned advantageous points in the vicinity of the payoff scene where they could effect a blockade in the event that the extortioner approach the payoff by automobile and attempted to make his subsequent getaway by automobile.

Located inside the building at 205 East Garfield Boulevard, about 30 feet from the payoff scene were SA [redacted] and [redacted] and Officer [redacted] and Officer [redacted]

Inside the building at 209 East Garfield, about 20 feet from the payoff scene were SAs ROSS T. SPENCER, DENNIS W. SHANAHAN, GEORGE F. GILLEM and Lt. [redacted] an Officer [redacted]. Both of these places contained portable radio equipment which placed them in communication with the victim and other motor vehicle equipment.

Upon the completion of these plans, the victim was sent to his office to wait for the time of the payoff. At about 5:00 p.m., December 22, 1955, the above mentioned officers were briefed as to their assignments at the Chicago FBI Office and thereafter proceeded to the payoff scene.

Subject was interviewed at the FBI Office on December 22, 1955, by SAs [] and []. He initially stated that he was not a native of Chicago and said that he had been in Chicago for only a short time and was not well acquainted with the city. When confronted with the information contained in the files of the Chicago Division wherein he had been previously investigated as a deserter from the U.S. Army, subject admitted that he was born and raised in Chicago and had resided there all his life except for the period he was in the service. He maintained, however, that he had never lived and was not known in the neighborhood of his arrest on Garfield Boulevard but did admit that he had lived at various addresses on the South side of Chicago and was well acquainted with the neighborhood where the payoff was made. He said he would not have gotten involved in the instant case if he had not been broke and hungry. He indicated he had worked last at Robbins Restaurant, Adams and Wacker Drive, Chicago. He stated he terminated his employment there about three weeks previously because his employer refused to pay him more than $40 per week.

When asked whether or not he had any relatives or friends in Chicago, [] indicated he did not have any. He stated he had no one to turn to when he found himself without funds and no place to stay following the termination of the above employment. He advised that he has spent the last couple of weeks sleeping and eating at various charitable missions on the South side of Chicago and indicated that the Pacific Garden Mission on State Street was one such place. He stated he had slept at the mission at Peoria and Madison Streets on December 21, 1955, and had breakfast there on December 22, 1955.

Subject indicated that he was walking on State Street near Harrison after breakfast when he was approached Subject stated that the unknown man then told him that he would have a job for the subject that evening which would pay $5.00 and inquired if the subject would like to attend a movie in the meantime. He told this person that he would like to go to a movie, and this man handed him 45 cents and instructed the subject that he would meet him on the corner of State and Harrison Streets about 6:00 p.m. that same evening, at which time he would tell the subject the nature of the job.

The subject then went to a triple feature movie, name and details which he could not recall, at about 10:30 a.m. and remained there until approximately 5:45 p.m. He stated that he used thirty cents of the money which had been given him for the admission to the movie and the other fifteen cents was spent on candy. The subject stated he went directly to the corner of State and Harrison after he left the movie and in a few minutes the above mentioned man who had offered him the job showed up. Subject advised that the man told him that he wanted the subject to pick up a package on Garfield Boulevard between Indiana and Prairie Streets and inquired as to whether the subject knew where that was. [redacted] stated that the man gave him forty cents for carfare and instructed him that at about 7:00 p.m. there would be a black seven-passenger limousine parked on Garfield Boulevard near Indiana and headed toward Prairie. [redacted] stated that he was told to approach the car and tell the driver that [redacted] had sent him for a package and once having obtained the package, return to the corner of Van Buren and State Streets where he would meet the subject at 10:00 p.m. and give him the $5.00 for the package. b6 b7c

He stated in a few minutes, he saw a limousine pull up and park on the corner of Garfield and Prairie. He walked up to it and asked the driver if he was Mr. JOHNSON. Upon being answered in the affirmative, he stated he thinks he told the driver that [redacted] had sent him for the package. [redacted] advised that he could not be sure but he may have asked the driver if he had a package for [redacted] stated that he received the package and started to walk away when he was apprehended.

These envelopes were submitted to the FBI Laboratory for comparison with the instant extortion letters. He also pointed out that one week prior to Christmas, the week during which the subject stayed at that mission, there were Christmas cards available and that it is possible that the subject may have used one of those cards to write the extortion letter. He stated, however, that he had none of those cards available now and could not recognize the extortion letter written on a Christmas card as one of those furnished by the mission.

[redacted] Christian Shelter, 720 West 26th Street, advised SA [redacted] on January 4, 1956, that a [redacted] had stayed at that mission on December 12, 1955. He stated that to his knowledge 6230 Cottage Grove, advised on January 5, 1956 that [redacted] had registered at that office for unemployment compensation but to his knowledge there were no specimens of [redacted] handprinting in the records but could not make these records available in view of policy as they were completely confidential.

On January 6, 1956, [redacted] United States Cold Storage Company, 2855 West Pershing, advised that [redacted] was employed with that concern from June 4, 1952 until March 30, 1953. During that time, [redacted] resided at [redacted]. A review of the records failed to reflect that there were any specimens of [redacted] handprinting in the files.

b7c

T-2, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that [redacted] had formerly served in the United States Army from January 23, 1943 to November 24, 1954. T-2 made available specimens of the subject's handprinting and these specimens had been forwarded to the FBI Laboratory for comparison with the handprinting in the extortion letters in this matter.

On January 13, 1956, [redacted] Veterans Administration, 2030 West Taylor Street, advised SA [redacted] that the records of the Veterans Administration contain no specimens of the subject's handprinting. [redacted] advised that his search of the records included the records of the GI Insurance records which are maintained in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

It is to be noted that [redacted] was the subject of a Selective Service investigation in June, 1943 in that he failed to report to Local Board 83 on May 28, 1943.

By letter dated October 27, 1943, United States Attorney J. ALBERT WALL advised the FBI that [redacted] had reported to his local board and had been delinquent because he had moved to a new address and thus had complied with the Selective Service law satisfactorily.

CG 9-2319

[redacted]

It should be noted that during 1952 and 1953 [redacted] ASN [redacted] wa. [redacted] was the subject of a deserter investigation by the Chicago Office. [redacted] deserted from Fort Custer, Michigan, on August 2, 1951. He surrendered himself on March 23, 1953 to the military authorities in Chicago, Illinois.

Results of Laboratory Examination

By letter dated December 23, 1955, instant extortion letters were forwarded to the FBI Laboratory along with nine pages of handprinting specimens obtained from the subject and five envelopes with handprinting specimens furnished by the subject. By teletype dated December 29, 1955, the Laboratory advised that no conclusion had been reached as to whether [redacted] wrote the handprinting on the extortion letters. However, they noted significant handprinting characteristics in both the extortion letters and the specimens submitted. There was no identification on the extortion letters made in the anonymous letter file. There was developed on the extortion letter dated December 20, 1955 a latent palm print.

b7c

By letter dated December 30, 1955, there was forwarded to the FBI Laboratory three plain white envelopes which were obtained at the Chicago Christian Industrial League, Chicago, Illinois, where the subject had stayed just prior to the instant extortion. In addition to the envelopes photographic prints for the application for employment at the United States Post Office, Chicago, Illinois, containing samples of the subject's handprinting, were forwarded to the FBI Laboratory.

By teletype dated January 3, 1956, the Laboratory advised that due to limited amount of comparable handprinting on the post office application and a lack of strong identifying handprinting characteristics no conclusion could be reached as to whether [redacted] wrote the extortion letters. The envelopes submitted to the FBI Laboratory under the date of December 30, 1955, were found not to be identical with the envelope used in the first extortion letter. Inasmuch as they were cut on different type and make of paper and different thickness and weight.

By letter dated December 30, 1955, the St. Louis Division was requested to review the subject's military record and obtain permanent handprinting specimens to be furnished to the FBI Laboratory for comparison with the extortion letters.

By airtel dated January 9, 1956, the subject's palm prints were forwarded to the FBI Laboratory to be compared with the latent palm print appearing on the extortion letter dated December 20, 1955. By airtel dated December 13, 1955, handprinting specimens of the subject appearing in the records of T-2 were forwarded to the FBI Laboratory to be compared with the extortion letter.

Results of examination:

This Laboratory report also acknowledges Chicago Airtel dated January 20, 1956.

Additional comparisons were made on the basis of the additional undictated known hand printing of [redacted] designated as Kc4 and Kc5. Because the questioned and known hand printing do not contain enough individual and consistent hand printing characteristics in common and because some of the hand printed letters comprising Q1 through Q4 might have been careful and deliberate changes from the writers normal formations of these letters, a definite conclusion was not reached as to whether or not [redacted], whose dictated and undictated known hand printing specimens appear on K1, Kc2, Kc4 and Kc5, wrote the questioned hand printing on Q1 through Q4. However, there were significant hand printing similarities noted between this questioned and known hand printing. Additional known samples of [redacted] hand printing would be of doubtful value and, therefore, none is requested at this time.

Specimens Q1 through Q4 and K1 through K3 are returned herewith. Photographs were made. Specimens Kc4 and Kc5 will be retained in the Laboratory's files.

Dear Mr. Hoover: I am writing to express my thanks for the fine cooperation and help that was given me by the Chicago office of the FBI. 5-1

A young man tried to extort some money from me by sending a threatening letter through the mail. The letter was turned over to the local office of the FBI and the case was handled by [redacted] and Mr. Roswell T. Spencer. Their efforts resulted in the arrest and conviction of the extortionist, who received a five year sentence.

Both [redacted] and Mr. Spencer were conscientious and considerate at all times and though it was a frightening experience, their devotion to duty in handling the case certainly gave me a feeling of protection and high appreciation for the fine work which is constantly being done by the FBI.

Very truly yours

John H. Johnson

NAME CHECK

No investigation ~~pertinent to your inquiry~~ has been conducted by the FBI concerning ~~the~~ captioned individual. However, the files of this Bureau reveal the following information which may relate to the subject of your name-check request.

"Who's Who in America," 1962-1963 edition lists John H. Johnson as an editor and publisher. It indicates he was editor of the "Negro Digest," Chicago, Illinois, from 1942 until 1951, and is presently president of the Johnson Publishing Company, Inc., 1820 South Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, and Wilshire Boulevard, Los Angeles, California.

The "Negro Digest" was cited by the California Committee on Un-American Activities, report 1948, page 225, as among publications which the committee found "to be communist initiated and controlled, or so strongly influenced as to be in the Stalin solar system." The Fifth Report of the California Committee on Un-American Activities, 1949, page 547, indicated that the "Negro Digest" was published weekly in Chicago, Illinois, and was published and edited by John H. Johnson.

Files of this Bureau reveal that as of November, 1953, the Johnson Publishing Company, published the following magazines: "Ebony," "Tan," "Copper," "Jet," and "Lue." We were advised as of 1953 that the company-policy was to concentrate on the positive achievements of members of the Negro race with very little deviation from that policy. As of the same year Ben Burns, also known as Benjamin Burnstein, was the executive editor of "Ebony." Burns was a member of the Communist Party (CP) in 1946 but was expelled from the CP in September, 1948. He was reportedly a former member of the
